Total Yarding: 19089 (+5976) | Sheep Yarding: 5922 (+2124) | Lamb Yarding: 13167 (+3852)

Numbers rose by 3852 for a yarding of 13167 lambs. Quality was good with new season trade weight and store lambs the best supplied, with limited numbers of heavyweights. All the regular buyers were present, and the market sold to a dearer trend.

Lightweight processing lambs to 18kg were $10 better, new season lambs sold from $66 to $148, and old lambs, $85 to $145/head. Lightweight store lambs under 20kg were also dearer, selling from $55 to $170/head.

Trade weights 20kg to 24Kg were up $15, new season lambs selling between $172 and $215, averaging 830c to 870c/kg cwt, and old lambs, $165 to $202/head. Heavyweights over 24Kg were up to $20 dearer, new season lambs sold from $218 to $266, and old lambs, $221 to $265/head, to average between 880c and 900c/kg cwt. Heavy hoggets reached $170/head.

There was 5922 mixed quality mutton yarded, and prices lifted $15 across most grades. Merino ewes sold from $30 to $120, and crossbred ewes, $53 to $135/head. Merino wethers sold from $20 to $120, and crossbred wethers reached $130/head. Most sold between 370c and 420c/kg cwt.
